Program Manager [Marin County] Job Opening Announcement

Youth Leadership Institute (yli) brings together young people and their adult allies to create positive community change that promotes social justice and racial equity. With community-based programs based in Fresno, San Francisco, Marin, San Mateo, Merced, Long Beach and the Eastern Coachella Valley, yli engages young people of color, low-income youth, and other impacted youth as advocates of social change.

yli CORE VALUES

- Inclusion: Young people are profoundly impacted by policies affecting their communities. yli brings youth to the table and works to institutionalize youth voice in the decision-making process.
- Innovation: Youth can often see a way forward where adults cannot. yli encourages youth to identify and implement their own solutions to the issues their communities face.
- Social Justice: Throughout history, young people have ignited and led social justice movements to create a better world for everyone. yli helps them to focus their attention on the root causes of injustice, and sharpen the skills they need to tackle them.
- Community: Nobody can do it alone! Through relationship and coalition-building, yli feeds the connective tissue within our communities to power our movements with the brilliance, resourcefulness, and wisdom of our partners.

PRIMARY FUNCTION

The Program Manager will enable the organization to develop staff to support youth change agents and work with partner agencies to move an equity agenda in their respective communities. With support from the Bay Area Director of Programs (BADP), the Program Manager (PM) is responsible for managing programs and initiatives. These efforts are designed to create opportunities for young people to serve as community advocates, leaders and decision-makers in efforts to advance policy and community change. They recruit, hire, supervise and manage staff, typically consisting of Program Coordinators and interns. They are experienced professionals with demonstrated success in planning and operating community-based youth organizing and engagement programs as well as the ability to work collaboratively and strategically toward a shared vision.

The Program Manager is expected to be an empowering and creative change agent, with an appetite for learning, coupled with an ability to operate as part of a team with internal staff and external partners. They should be familiar with a variety of concepts, practices, and procedures in the fields of youth development, social justice, and environmental prevention. In addition, they rely on extensive experience and judgment to plan and accomplish goals while performing a variety of tasks and leading and directing the work of others on their team.
